"I am on a wide road running from south to north, flanked by a landscaped area with trees and a park on the left side. The road has clear lane markings, including arrows indicating the direction of traffic. To my left, there is a low wall separating the road from the park area, which features a lawn and several trees. On the right side, there are tall buildings, ..."

"I am at a large intersection with multiple lanes running in various directions. The road is wide, with clear lane markings indicating traffic flow. To the north, there is a park area with well-maintained lawns and trees. In the center of the intersection, there is a roundabout. Traffic lights are positioned at the intersection, and there are pedestrian crossings marked on the road..."

"I am on a wide road that runs from north to south, flanked by modern buildings on both sides. To my left, there is a large building known as 'タイムズ日比谷セントラルビル' with a smooth facade and several windows. To my right, another building features a curved design with a glass exterior. The road is marked with directional arrows, guiding traffic flow..."
